

Midwest Referee Quick Start

V 2024.06.24

Read This First

This quick start guide is not intended to take the place of the manual. It's intended to give you an overview of everything you need to do to get started working as a referee and to get paid. The details and everything you need are in the Midwest Referee Manual. If you haven't read the manual, do that before you send emails, texts and/or call. It will save us all a lot of time.

Quick Start Steps

- Read the paragraph above first
- Attend a grassroots clinic (learning.ussoccer.com/referee)
- Join Midwest Referee assigning group on assignr.com using: midwestreferee.com/join
- Go to the Financials menu item in assignr.com. Fill out bank information and W9 so that you can be paid.
- If you're under 16, get a work permit specific to Midwest Referee
 - Everything needed is in the document in the Work Permit FAQ
 - See Work Permit FAQ: midwestreferee.com/#faq
 - Instructions on page 1
 - Letter of Intent on page 2
 - Upload the work permit here: midwestreferee.com/work-permit
- Purchase referee gear (see Equipment in midwestreferee.com/#getstarted)
- Watch all of the videos on the FAQs of midwestreferee.com/#faq
- Read the Midwest Referee Manual (See FAQs)
- If you have additional questions, review the table of contents in the manual to make sure it's not in the manual
- If you still have additional questions, send an email: midwestreferee@gmail.com
